MY ALL-TIME FAVORITES FROM #BEAUTYJUNKIEWEEK

SUNDAY RILEY GOOD GENES LACTIC ACID TREATMENT, $122

sundayriley.com This cult classic is an all-in-one treatment with a fresh lemony scent! I see a huge difference in the brightening and tightening of my skin when I use it once or twice a week.

BIODERMA SENSIBIO H2O MICELLAR WATER MAKEUP REMOVER, $10

target.com This is by far the best makeup remover I have ever used. I call it a prewash as it removes pollutants from the face before cleansing. (Do not skip this step!) The formula is so clean, like water, so it doesn't sting.

JUARA RADIANCE ENZYME SCRUB, $38, juaraskincare.com

I have slightly noticeable pores around my nose and on my inner cheeks (I know, that sounds gross!), but this product seems to make them shrink to zip, zero, zilch.

EVIAN MINERAL WATER FACIAL SPRAY, $14, walmart.com

I know this is traditionally a facial product, but I use it on my hair. It has an atomizer that distributes perfectly for waves and curls. Spray a bunch in and scrunch hair with your hands or dry with a diffuser for lots of fun curl.

CREST 3D WHITE BRILLIANCE + WHITENING TWO STEP TOOTHPASTE

$12, target.com I have tried bleaching here and there, but my teeth are very sensitive, and I can't handle it. This two-step system is a great solution for my sensitive teeth, and I see a noticeable difference after using it for a few consecutive days.

HANACURE THE ALL-IN-ONE FACIAL
$29, hanacure.com This gets the job done. I swear by it. Slather it on, get tiiiiiggghht, and voilà! A pro-level facial treatment right at home.

NOW SOLUTIONS VITAMIN E-OIL, $18
nowfoods.com This is the purest vitamin E oil I have found on the market. I just put a drop on my hand and then directly on my face. It's incredibly hydrating, and it can be found in almost any health food store.

FLOWER BEAUTY WARRIOR PRINCESS
MASCARA, $11, walmart.com Our FLOWER Beauty Warrior Princess Mascara is like one of my AMEX cards. I don't leave home without it.

OLAY DAILY FACIALS WATER-ACTIVATED DRY CLOTHS, $6
walmart.com When I'm dog-tired, putting the kids to bed, or just emotionally over it after a long day, this product makes my skin washing routine so much more fun. It's a five-in-one! If you're on the go, these are great to bring along with you.

GARNIER WHOLE BLENDS SHAMPOO
& CONDITIONER IN LEGENDARY
OLIVE, $4 EACH, walgreens.com
Holy cow. This is the best shampoo. I originally bought it because my daughter's name is Olive, and then I fell in love. I also appreciate the affordable price point.

ELTA MD UV DAILY TINTED BROAD-SPECTRUM SPF 40, $33, eltamd.com
I break out from almost every sunblock, so I often ask myself, "Do I want acne or brown pigmentation?" It's always been a crappy toss-up. Then I found this! It's a lightweight sunscreen with a tiny bit of tint.

FLOWER BEAUTY FIBER FIX BROW
GEL & SKINNY MICROBROW PENCIL
$10-$11, cvs.com I love this combo for brows. Use the Microbrow Pencil to fill any gaps, then use the brush to make a perfectly angled, coifed eyebrow. By layering on the Fiber Fix Brow Gel, you can go for a perfectly arched brow and a very expressive look.

BATISTE DRY SHAMPOO, $8
walmart.com I am crazy for this dry shampoo! I love dry shampoo for texture, but this one actually works like a true do-over for dirty hair, cleaning it right up. The travel size is purse-friendly for day or night.
